

LOCAL NEWS.

The Board of Supervisors meet at Accomac C. H., Wednesday, February 15th.

Mr. James W. Sparrow died of paralysis, near Metompkin, last Monday, aged 70 years.

Mr. Leroy J. Killmon and Miss Cora S. Belote, were married at the bride's residence, Tasley, Va., last Wednesday, Rev. A. C. Berryman officiating.

Matthews & Taylor advertise a valuable saw mill for sale in this issue and will sell at low figures. If you need one read what they have to say.

John A. Bundick, trustee, will sell at public auction on Tuesday, February 21st, 3 p. m., at Parkley, the valuable farm of Mr. J. Morgan Dix, located near that town. For full particulars see posters.

In another column Mr. G. B. Jones advertises for sale, barrels, truck boxes, cart material and a general line of lumber. Your wants in either line will be promptly attended to by calling on Mr. Samuel H. East, agent.

Rogers & Bro., Finney, Va., are prepared to supply their trade with seed peas, grass, potato-beds, frames, Lobos guano and other special brands of fertilizers for peas, onions, round and sweet potatoes, at lowest market prices.

The reputation of the Malby House, Baltimore, for first class accommodations and low rates is fully sustained under the present management. This fact with its central location should recommend it to all travellers.

An advertisement of Silverthorn & Co., Philadelphia, in another column, is of especial interest to our farmers who lost their potato seed during the late freeze. He can supply you with seed of best quality at lowest prices.

For many of the ills "which human flesh is heir to," you have a remedy in a liniment prepared by Dr. S. T. Williams. Read the advertisement and give it a trial. Testimonials as to its merit can be received from anyone who has used it.

There will be a meeting of delegates from all the sub-Alliances in Accomac county at Parkley, on Wednesday, February the 15th, at noon. Each Alliance is requested to send three delegates. Delegates will please meet there promptly at noon.

The first quarterly conference of Onancock church, Southern Methodist Church, will be held at Andrew Chapel, Saturday and Sunday, February 11th and 12th. Rev. W. P. Wright, P. E., will preach Saturday and Sunday, 11 a. m., and at Onancock, Sunday, 7:30 p. m.

Everyone interested in the sweet potato crop should read the advertisement of E. P. Byrd & Bro. They offer for sale a fertilizer of undoubted excellence. The testimonials of some of our best farmers as to its value are given and all who have used it agree with them.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. George E. Phillips, Nassawadox, Northampton, and Miss M. S. Bradford, Norfolk, both formerly of this county, at 27 Windsor avenue, Norfolk, on next Wednesday, 15th inst., and of Mr. A. J. Melson and Miss Eva T. Barnes at Lewmont, N. P. Church, on Wednesday, 22nd inst.

The taking of depositions in the suit instituted by the farmers of Accomac against the N. Y. P. & N. R. Co., in regard to freight rates, was commenced at Accomac C. H. yesterday. Hon. John Goode was present as counsel for the farmers and Mr. Walke, of Walke & Old, Norfolk, for Railroad company.

John W. Rogers & Bros., Onley, Va., have in stock and for sale at lowest prices, Bang's fertilizer, Rogers' Best, Peruvian guano, bone, kainit, salt, peas, plover and castings, stove and egg coal, potato-beds, frames, cypress lumber, shingles, glass, etc., and your patronage is solicited if you need any of them.

Benjamin T. Gunter, Jr., trustee, will sell at public auction on Saturday, Feb. 12th, 2:30 p. m., in front of store of E. B. Swanger & Co., at Locustville, the interest of Robert P. Haley and William J. Haley, in the valuable farm, located near Locustville, of which their father died seized and possessed. See posters for full particulars in reference to same.

There will be a grand ball and terrapin supper at Hotel Martin, Pungoteague, next Wednesday, February 15th. The accommodating proprietor, Mr. D. A. Martin, will do all in his power to make it a pleasant occasion. The bill-of-fare is to be a superb one, music excellent and attention to guests all that could be desired.

Mr. F. H. Dryden, real estate agent, Pocomoke City, has sold E. T. Bundick, of Modestown, a very valuable truck farm in Somerset county, for $1500. Mr. Dryden has also sold within the last few days a farm to Wm. Malchow, of the state of Kansas, for $500, one to A. H. Lovejoy, of Low Island, New York, for $3000, and another to D. B. Laird, of Brooklyn, New York, for $1900.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Capt. George Birch died on the 7th inst., aged 89 years.

Mrs. Cora A. Baker, the wife of Joseph Baker, died January 30th, aged 43 years.

Mrs. Josephine Hill, daughter of Littleton Hill, died January 17th, aged 30 years.

Miss Mollie Smith has returned from a visit of several weeks in Washington, D. C.

Master Frank Townshend, of Snow Hill, Md., has accepted a clerkship in Mr. O. M. Jones' drug store.

Child of Parker Daisey died January 28th, aged 8 months, and child of Parker Jester died January 14th, aged 3 months.

Mr. M. C. Broughton, deputy commissioner of revenue, was here this week "taking down" property for purposes of taxation.

Mr. E. F. Laws, lately employed in restaurant of Archie Jones, in Philadelphia, has returned home on account of his poor health.

Our public schools have closed for two weeks on account of bad weather and an epidemic of measles and whooping cough. Prof. Percy Hudson, the principal, is still sick with measles.

Capt. B. S. Rich spent several days with us last week and paid out to the crews of the four Life-Saving Stations, nearest to us, $14,000 and to those of his district $26,000—the largest ever made.

M. E. Selby and M. J. Byrd, the two first drummers to arrive here after the freeze, sold bills aggregating $1,000 and $1,000 respectively. The sales of some of the numerous tourists, who have put in an appearance here, were light.

Arrivals at Atlantic Hotel this week: M. E. Selby, E. R. Sipple, Frank Hanna, Wilmington, Del.; Joseph Haskins, J. B. Smith, M. J. Byrd, A. H. Anson, Baltimore; Z. B. Wharton, Stockton, Md.; E. H. Taylor, Georgetown, Del.; Wm. A. Wallis, Philadelphia; R. J. McAllen, Snow Hill, Md.; B. S. Rich, M. C. Broughton, Accomac.

Our oysters have improved very much since the freeze and from 400 to 500 barrels are being forwarded to market daily by our shippers—and selling, prices from $5 to $6 per barrel, culls $4 to $5, the best prices since the war. Claims also are being shipped in large quantities and big prices realized for them. Since the freeze we have surely been "in the swim."

Much floating ice is reported on the Bay.

Prof. C. E. Krens and wife are at Mrs. Bettie Custis's.

Lieut. Wadsworth left Tuesday for his regular trip to Life-Saving stations on this coast.

Mrs. E. A. Merrill will erect soon a very large store on Main street, opposite F. A. West's store.

The new insurance office of Kelly, Nottingham & Kellam, on North street, has just been completed.

The steamer "Pocomoke" arrived in the creek last Saturday, with a fairly full passenger list. This was her first trip since the late freeze-up.

Schr. Alice & Anna, Capt. Benj. F. Crockett, arrived yesterday with a load of lumber. The schooner was four weeks ice-bound in Tangier harbor.

The parsonage of M. E. Church, South, was visited by the people of Andrew Chapel in large numbers last Tuesday night and the members thereof liberally "pounded." They have the thanks of the household.

The church of the Holy Trinity was consecrated, with imposing ceremonies, by Bishop A. M. Randolph, Friday afternoon, of last week. The seating capacity of the church was tested to its utmost, the aisles being crowded with persons who could not procure seats. The music was of unusual excellence. At night the Bishop confirmed a class of twelve.

Ice-houses filled this winter with ice of best quality.

M. F. Byrd & Bro., will open a block-frost shop here on the 15th.

The pupils in the public school of this place number nearly one hundred.

Mrs. Hester Mears, seriously ill of late with pneumonia, has entirely recovered.

Dr. John L. Harman has been confined to his bed for several days and quite sick at this writing.

Paul Winder, accidentally shot in his foot several weeks ago, will not, as was first thought, lose a part of same.

Bishop Randolph's sermon at St. George Church last Sunday, was a very fine one and the house was filled to overflowing.

The steamer Eastern Shore made her first trip here last Monday, since the freeze and had a heavy cargo for the different points on her route.

Sweet potato seed are very much in demand in this section. About one person in ten has carried them through the severe winter successfully.

The officers of Pungoteague Conclave No. 31, Improved Order of Heptasophs, will be installed on the 15th inst. This and other important business requires the attendance of all the members and all are expected to be present.

Silver Wedding.

The evening of December 30th was most pleasantly spent at "Cedar Plain" in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dutton's marriage. The house was becomingly decorated with evergreens. In the parlor arched over the mantel in large letters of mistletoe and ivy were the suitable words "Silver Wedding, '67-'92." About 10 o'clock the invitation was extended to the dining-room where a most sumptuous wedding supper was served, after an appropriate blessing being offered by Rev. P. H. Pernell. Popular games, social conversation and rare music by Misses Lella Dalby, Mand Krouse, Sally and Margaret Dutton, also a song by Master Ned Dutton, were highly enjoyed. Numerous gifts of handsome silver were presented with best wishes to the honored couple. Letters of congratulation, accompanied with choice presents, were received from many that were denied the privilege of being present. The only occurrence to mar the joyous occasion—Rev. H. Petty not being present, who married them—but his letter of congratulation with regrets and present were on exhibition, closing with the following beautiful lines:

May another score of years,
Without sadness, without tears,
Be your happy lot to share,
'Neath our heavenly Father's care.

At a late hour all reluctantly bade adieu with the hope of being present at the "Golden Wedding."

A GUEST.

Meeting of Democratic County Committee.

The following are the members of said committee: Dr. Geo. Littleton, W. T. Mason, L. C. Meads, Dr. J. W. Kellam, F. M. Boggs, T. W. Blackstone, Dr. F. Drummond, James R. Hickman, N. W. Nock, Dr. Frank Fletcher, S. W. Matthews, Sol T. Johnson, O. M. Jones and W. J. Matthews.

J. W. BOWDOIN,
Chairman County Committee.

A CARD.

I am now ready to receive orders for "Mixture B" and "Fish Mixture F." Prices the same as last season. Thanking the farmers for their several years' patronage, I ask a continuance of the same.

I understand there is an agent within my territory who is claiming to sell the identical "Fish Mixture" that I am selling. I only wish to say it is a false report, and any one wishing to have proof of the matter can get it by writing Humphreys & Tighman, Salisbury, Md., compounders of the "Fish Mixture" that I sell.

W. L. Nock, Agent,
